Minimum loan :	No minimum loan amount
Maximum loan :	The maximum amount available to borrow is assessed on the age of the youngest borrower and the loan to value ratio. The value of the property is assessed and then, based on the valuation, the borrower may be eligible for the following amounts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 60 - 64 Years - $200,000 or 15% of the value of the property, whichever is lower • 65 - 69 Years - $250,000 or 20% of the value of the property, whichever is lower • 70 - 74 Years - $300,000 or 25% of the value of the property, whichever is lower • 75 - 79 Years - $350,000 or 35% of the value of the property, whichever is lower • 80+ Years - $400,000 or 40% of the value of the property, whichever is lower
Valuations :	A valuation of the property offered for security is required to be conducted at the time of application. Fees apply.
Limited amount repayable :	You or your estate cannot end up owing more than the value of the mortgaged property provided the terms and conditions of this loan have been met.
Interest :	Interest is calculated daily and charged to the loan account monthly.

Repayments :	Regular loan repayments are not required. However, you are free to make voluntary repayments of any amount (and redraw these amounts, for a fee) or repay the loan via lump sum repayments at any time at no extra cost or penalty. Provided you are not in default, the loan will be repaid when: (a) the mortgaged property is sold on your death or death of the last borrower; (b) the mortgaged property ceases to be your principal place of residence or that of the last surviving borrower; or (c) in case of an investment property or holiday home, on the death of the last surviving approved resident.
Interest offset facility :	No
Redraw facility :	Yes, minimum redraw amount of $100 and $30 service fee applies.
Approved Resident :	Yes
Fees and charges :	Refer to Fees & Charges brochure for current fees applicable
Increase/top up loan :	Subject to Maximum Loan criteria
Investment Property as Security :	Yes
Equity in your home :	The amount you borrow from your Retirees Access Home Loan and compound interest charged to the loan, will affect the amount you receive from the sale of the property (known as the equity in your property) should you ever need to sell it. Your equity in the property is likely to vary over time as both the market value of the property varies and the balance of the loan account increases.
Your Centrelink payments (Pension) :	We recommend that you discuss your situation and potential Retirees Access Home Loan with Centrelink or the Department of Veteran Affairs to understand any impacts on entitlements.
Other occupiers of your property :	If you are living with someone who is not a borrower and the loan becomes repayable because you die or cease to permanently reside in the property, they will have to move out and live somewhere else.
Your family :	The loan may affect your capacity to leave an inheritance to your children or other family members. You should discuss this with your family.
